

Symposium 2014

Date: Wednesday 23rd July 2014
Venue: Seminar room B, Hope Building
Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust

Time	Activity/Talk
13.30	Light lunch (TBC)
14.00-14.20	A qualitative study exploring the benefits of a new joint specialty renal genetic clinic for children and their families : Prof Adrian Woolf, Chair of Paediatric Science, University of Manchester and Honorary Consultant in Paediatric Nephrology, RMCH
14.25-14.45	Depletion of Anti-PLA2R antibodies with intravenous Cyclophosphamide based therapy in Idiopathic Membranous Nephropathy : Dr Durga kanigicherla, Locum Consultant Nephrologist, MRI
14.50-15.10	Clinical severity of Alport nephropathy accentuated by biallelic MYO1E mutations : Dr Rachel Lennon, Wellcome Trust Intermediate Fellow, University of Manchester, and Honorary Consultant in Paediatric Nephrology, RMCH
15.15-15.30	Tea Break
15.30-15.50	Speckle track echocardiography in the CRISIS-HD study : Dr Diana Chiu, Clinical Research Fellow, SRFT
15.55-16.15	The Spirit Study and phosphate lowering in dialysis patients - Early results of a randomised controlled trial : Dr Ramya Bhargava, Clinical research Fellow, MRI
16.20-16.55	Current international CKD cohorts : Prof Philip Kalra, Honorary Professor, University of Manchester, and Consultant Nephrologist, SRFT
17.00	End of meeting